

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF ARTS & SCIENCE

GO GLOBAL WEEK: Make the world your classroom

Showcasing international and research opportunities
available to Arts & Science students

October 4 and 5, 2016 | Colleges and Sidney Smith Hall

PROGRAM

TUESDAY OCTOBER 4

- 11:00 – 1:00 | Go Global Trinity
Sponsored by Trinity College
Strachan Hall Foyer, Trinity College Main Halls
6 Hoskin Avenue
Poster presentations of Trinity students' international experiences. Come and meet students who have gone global through UofT, see their research results and ask them questions.
- 12:00 - 2:00 | Go Global at Innis and Woodsworth: World Café
Co-sponsored by Innis College and Woodsworth College
Innis Events Room
111 St. George Street
Meet students who have gone global through U of T, hear their stories and ask them questions. Drop ins welcome!
- 12:00 - 1:00 | Go Global at New
Sponsored by New College
New College - D.G. Ivey Library
20 Willcocks Street
Poster presentations of New College students' international experiences. Come and meet students over lunch who have gone global through U of T, see their research results and ask them questions.
- 12:00 - 1:00 | World Cafe: Embark on an International Adventure
Co-sponsored by St. Michael's College and Victoria College
Brennan Hall Foyer Lounge
81 St. Marry Street
Meet students over lunch who have gone global through UofT, hear their stories and ask them questions. Drop ins welcome!
- 3:00 - 4:00 | Information Session: Joint Minor exchange program with National University of Singapore
Centre for International Experience, Global Lounge
33 St. George Street
Information on the Joint Minor programs in Biology, Chemistry or Geography that are offered with the National University of Singapore. Learn more about this special program available only to Arts & Science students to spend a term in Singapore while completing a minor program.

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 5

- 12:00 – 4:00 | International and Research Information Fair
Sidney Smith Lobby
100 St. George Street
Representatives from UofT and Faculty of Arts and Science international programs and recognized Student Groups provide information and answer questions about the international opportunities they offer for Arts and Science students.

SESSIONS

- 1:00 - 1:30 | International Opportunities for A&S Students: An introduction
Sidney Smith Hall, Room 2098 (History Conference Room)
100 St. George Street
A brief presentation on the international and research opportunities available to Arts & Science students. This session will include information on Faculty of Arts & Science-funded programs, Summer Abroad courses and student exchange. In addition, students will be provided with useful resources and links on proceeding with the application.

Presenters will be available for questions following the session.

- Genevieve Steidman, Wordsworth College, Summer Abroad and Science Abroad
 - M.P. Stevens, International Programs, Faculty of Arts and Science
 - Tak Koguchi, International Student Exchange, Centre for International Experience (TBC)
- 1:30 - 2:00 | Sciences and Beyond: International opportunities for Science students
Sidney Smith Hall, Room 571 (Basement level)
100 St. George Street
Come and learn about international and research opportunities available for science students. These include summer research opportunities for science students, Science Abroad courses and the Joint Minor exchange programs in Biology and Nanoscience.
- 2:00 - 2:30 | International Opportunities for A&S Students: An introduction
Sidney Smith Hall, Room 2098 (History Conference Room)
100 St. George Street
A brief presentation on the international and research opportunities available to Arts & Science students. This session will include information on Faculty of Arts & Science-funded programs, Summer Abroad courses and student exchange. In addition, students will be provided with useful resources and links on proceeding with the application.

Presenters will be available for questions following the session.

- Genevieve Steidman, Wordsworth College, Summer Abroad and Science Abroad
- M.P. Stevens, International Programs, Faculty of Arts and Science
- Tak Koguchi, International Student Exchange, Centre for International Experience (TBC)

- 2:30 – 3:00 | How to Apply for Arts & Science Funded International Programs
 Sidney Smith Hall, Room 571 (Basement level)
 100 St. George Street
Advice and information on how to apply for Research Excursions, International Course Modules, the Deans International Initiatives Fund and others. Application process and funding arrangements will be discussed.
- 3:00 - 3:30 | International Opportunities for A&S Students: An introduction
 Sidney Smith Hall, Room 2098 (History Conference Room)
 100 St. George Street
 A brief presentation on the international and research opportunities available to Arts & Science students. This session will include information on Faculty of Arts & Science-funded programs, Summer Abroad courses and student exchange. In addition, students will be provided with useful resources and links on proceeding with the application.

Presenters will be available for questions following the session.

 - Genevieve Steidman, Wordsworth College, Summer Abroad and Science Abroad
 - M.P. Stevens, International Programs, Faculty of Arts and Science
 - Tak Koguchi, International Student Exchange, Centre for International Experience (TBC)
- 3:30 – 4:00 | Social Sciences and Humanities Abroad: Explore your options
 Sidney Smith Hall, Room 571 (Basement level)
 100 St. George Street
A brief presentation on the international and research opportunities available to students in the Social Sciences and Humanities. This session will include information on Faculty of Arts & Science-funded programs, Summer Abroad courses and student exchange. In addition, students will be provided with useful resources and links on proceeding with the application.