Eligibility Criteria

The Dean's Student Initiative Fund is limited to one-time-only and should not be expected to support an ongoing activity year after year. Sponsors of annual events (e.g. conferences, symposiums) who are applying for one-time-only funding should demonstrate the innovative components of the event for which they are applying, beyond annual changes in event themes.

Applicants for activities intended to be on-going or annual should demonstrate plans to become self-sustaining. The Fund should be viewed only as start-up assistance for such activities.

Journals and magazines should focus on electronic dissemination. Hard copy printing costs will not be considered.

The Fund does not fund catering costs.

The Fund does not fund for individual students requesting travel for research, delivering papers, or taking courses. Graduate students requesting funds for travel should contact their home unit. Undergraduate students should approach their college or program sponsor.
