Teaching and Learning Initiatives Committee
2014-15

Suzanne Stevenson, Chair

The committee oversees the Faculty’s Advancing Teaching and Learning in Arts and Science (ATLAS) fund. The committee is responsible for reviewing each proposal submission and providing the Dean with recommendations on the approval and funding of proposed initiatives based on their alignment with the goals of ATLAS. As such, the committee fosters pedagogical innovation and ongoing curriculum renewal in support of the Faculty’s commitment to teaching excellence and enhancement of the student academic experience.
