The Terms of Reference provide the framework for the review report. Reviewers are asked to comment explicitly upon the following:

1. The consistency of the Faculty’s academic priorities with the University’s long-range plan in particular, the commitment to excellence in teaching and research.

2. Progress towards the Faculty’s academic priorities, including the capacity to meet opportunities and challenges ahead successfully.

3. The effectiveness of the approach to undergraduate and graduate education and its enhancements to support students’ academic experience, including the role played by the Colleges.

4. The effectiveness of the Faculty’s efforts to foster a strong culture of excellence and achievement in research and scholarly activity, including the effectiveness of support structures.

5. The effectiveness of the Faculty’s internal organizational and financial structure including the appropriateness of resource allocation with respect to budget, faculty complement, infrastructure and advancement.

6. The scope and nature of the Faculty’s relationships with other University of Toronto campuses and divisions.

7. The scope and nature of the Faculty’s societal impact at the local, national, and international levels.

8. Extent to which initiatives have been undertaken to enhance the accessibility (e.g., for students requiring physical or mental health accommodations) and diversity (including underrepresented groups) of the Faculty in the areas of academic programs, student and faculty complement and recruitment.
